From the Pastor Mothers Day is today, a time to celebrate those who brought us into this world, and nurtured us. We recognize the efforts that so many mothers give to raise up their young ones in what is right. And we thank you, today and each day. But we realize that in today's world many times people also need a surrogate, someone to help raising the child. As such, each of us has a responsibility to take part in raising up our community's children in Christ, and nurturing them in the Christian Faith. We thank God today for where our faith once dwelt, and those who passed the faith on to us. May we continue to follow in their lead.

Pat Rudolph is at Avante in Ocala for rehabilitation. She has moved again and now has two roommates! Her new room is #221C. Visitation address:
